Sustainable Travel Routes to Oasis Academy Broadoak

When travelling to Oasis Academy Broadoak we encourage you to use the most sustainable option. Below is a breakdown of the best ways to reach the academy via public transport or active travel:

Train

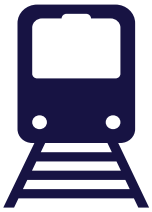
Manchester Piccadilly or Manchester Victoria are both nearby major stations. From Piccadilly you can take the Metrolink Blue Line to Ashton-under-Lyne, getting off at the Interchange. From Victoria you can take the train with Northern Rail to Ashton-under-Lyne station. Both of these destinations are a 15-20 minute walk to the academy.

Nearest local station: Ashton-under-Lyne (Northern and TransPennine Express) - ~15-minute walk from the academy.

Bus

Several frequent bus routes serve the area around Broadoak:

- Route 231: Runs between Manchester and Ashton-under-Lyne, stopping near Broadoak Road.
- Route 347: Runs between Denton and Ashton-under-Lyne.
- Route 396: Connects Oldham and Ashton-under-Lyne.

Cycling, Walking & Wheeling


The area is pedestrian-friendly with good pavement access throughout Ashton-under-Lyne town centre and surrounding streets. There are local and national cycle routes connecting Ashton-under-Lyne to Manchester city centre and neighbouring towns. The Ashton Canal Cycleway (National Cycle Network Route 60) provides a largely traffic-free route from central Manchester to Ashton-under-Lyne which takes ~50 minutes.