Summer 2 Week 6

Sentence types

- This year, we have learned the following sentence types:
 1. Adjective, same ad – He was a fast runner, fast because he needed to be.
 2. De: de sentence (Description: details) – I was exhausted: I hadn't slept for more than two days.
 3. Some: others – Some people love football; others just can't stand it.
 4. Action as if ___. – The boy cried and screamed as if that would change his mother's mind.
 5. Emotion – consequence sentence: David was angry – he threw his toy at the wall.
 6. Tell: show 3; examples – He was feeling relaxed: shoes off; shirt undone; lying on the sofa.
 7. When; when; when, then. - When the air around you suddenly freezes; when your blood chills; when the sudden silence suffocates all sounds, then the haunting begins.
- But you can also use sentence types learned previously in your writing. Think about the intent (what effect do you want to have on the reader) before choosing the sentence type you will use.

Grammar starter: Synonyms and antonyms

Complete the table by writing a suitable synonym or antonym.

Word	Synonym	Antonym

CHALLENGE: Write the root word of refreshed. How many different words can you create by adding prefixes and suffixes to the root?

LO: to draft a diary entry

Success criteria

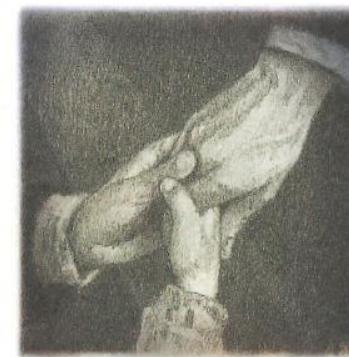

- I can write in the first person
- I can plan to include significant moments
- I can include thoughts and emotions
- I can weave a theme through a text

You are going to use the planning from yesterday to write your diary entry.

I want the work to be your best, so we will spend 2 lessons to write it.

Today we will write the introduction and at least one event.

10

Wake up - happy as it's sunny

Eating breakfast notice a packed suitcase (happy
- are we going on a holiday?)

You should use the map that you created yesterday with the significant events plotted.

Remember to use the intent in order to choose vocabulary for precision.

I DO -

Dearest diary,

Today didn't fulfil the promise of the warm greeting that I received from the sun, which had stealthily crept through the drapes to wake me up by gently caressing my face. Having reluctantly sat up from the comfort of my down-filled pit, a massive yawn overtook me – it felt amazing: I was bathed in sunlight as every muscle relaxed without tension. It's such a shame that the feeling didn't last very long.

YOU DO – write your diary entry.
